SUPERVISOR OF ELECTIONS

“Election Security is National Security”

Every time there is an election, we hear about technology failures and hackers threatening our system. With technology advancing faster than ever, Broward needs a Supervisor of Elections with technology expertise and leadership experience.

John Lewis said, "we must ensure every vote and every voter counts." Protecting our democracy and dedicated service to the nation is in Joe's DNA. His Grandma Carrie was the first Black woman to vote in Wilcox County, AL. His mom retired from Broward Public Schools, an educator for over 40 years. Joe's dad is a retired Army Sergeant Major and disabled veteran. His wife of 16 years is an Army Veteran and Nurse Anesthetist who serves Broward hospitals in the face of the COVID-19 threat.

currently faces. So many have fought and bled for our right to vote and have inspired him to follow in their footsteps, tirelessly protecting our electoral system from all threats. Joe is also the only candidate with an MBA and 20 years of combined military and technology leadership experience. He has the unique skill set required to effectively build the team and capabilities we need to ensure fair voting for all.

Joe recognizes that there is a lot of work to do to build the elections office that Broward deserves. He will focus on keeping our system safe from hackers. Joe will also increase voter turnout in Broward by removing obstacles that make it difficult for our hard-working citizens to participate.

Our next SOE will have to modernize our elections system. It is critical for our Supervisor of Elections to have a background that will prepare him to integrate new systems to make voting easier and more secure.
